

CSBAG General Assembly gets a new board

L-R; Sam Mutabazi, Elliot Orizaarwa, Paul Onapa, Apio Claudia, Julius Kapwepwe, Richard Mugisha and Imelda Namagga posse for a photo after the AGM at Eureka Hotel on October 25th 2019. @CSBAG

Civil Society Budget Advocacy Group (CSBAG) General Assembly has today got a new Board of Directors that will serve the next three-year term. The board was elected during the Annual General Meeting (AGM 2019 that took place at Eureka Hotel, Kampala on 25th October 2019.

The event which was attended by over 80 different CSBAG member organizations and individuals saw the Board Chairperson Julius Kapwepwe, vice Orizaarwa Elliot and treasurer Imelda Namagga re-elected.

Other members who were elected include Paul Onapa and Sam Mutabazi whereas Claudia Apio and Richard Mugisha are the new entrants on the board. The out-going board members are Nelly Busingye Mugisha and Ahamed Hadji.

said Kapwepwe, who has been re-elected as Board Chairperson said: "As a new team we shall look at processes of new strategic plan dubbed (Strengthening Accountability for Revenues and Expenditures (SPARE) 2018/2023, we shall ensure an increased flow of resources but also think more strategically about sustainability."

According to him, CSBAG mandate to champion budget advocacy across the country and beyond is growing by day and this requires a governance structure to continue mobilizing all efforts to make CSBAG a formidable force.

Namagga who was re-elected as the Board Treasurer said CSBAG is growing and the same applies to its demanded hence the need to have more people, innovations in the organisation. According to her, CSBAG's expansion implies the need to increase fundraising efforts to make it a sustainable and resilient organisation.

CSBAG's AGM in pictures

CSBAG member organisations and individuals during AGM. @CSBAG

CSBAG Executive Director Julius Mukunda speaking during AGM. @CSBAG

Lucas Chelangat (in the middle) the nomination committee chair during AGM. @CSBAG

Imelda Namagga gets a certificate and plaque from Robert Kakuru, the Executive Director Kick- Uganda. @CSBAG